PRINCIPAL SCHEDULE

From the perspective of:

Emily Hopkins, Communications Specialist for TCEA

TCEA Staff

I'm a former school principal who supported my faculty and staff in many areas including discipline, curriculum and instruction, data collection and analysis, budget and funding, management and evaluation, and more. Working with faculty, staff, parents, and students to build community, promote a positive school culture, and foster school pride was a big priority for me as well as equity, diversity, and inclusion.

I packed my schedule! If I have free time, I'm in the exhibit hall. When looking for sessions, I tried to balance sessions that would help me hone my leadership skills to be a better leader with sessions that align with school goals and will be directly helpful to teachers. Empowering my teachers was very important to me as a principal, so I also looked at sessions that would also be of interest to them.
