SPECIAL EDUCATION TEACHER SCHEDULE

From the perspective of:

Cindy Lewis, Gifted & Talented Coordinator for Anna ISD

TCEA Convention Advisory Panel

I looked for sessions that would help me provide support to special education students. As their teacher, I want to help them shine in their own unique ways both in and out of the classroom.

I am an educator who believes that students are capable of great things when given the proper tools. I'm looking forward to learning about tools and getting resources that will help me support all my special education students in their growth and progress.
